BOOK SYNOPSIS

It is hardly surprising that Aleppo, one of the worlds oldest continuously inhabited cities, is also home to one of the worlds most distinguished and vibrant cuisines. Surrounded by fertile lands and located at the end of the Silk Road, Aleppo was a food capital long before Paris, Rome, or New York. Here, one of the Arab worlds most renowned chefs unlocks the secrets to this distinctive cuisine in this comprehensive cookbook filled with practical guidance on Middle Eastern cooking techniques as well as step-by-step explanations of over 200 irresistible recipes, such as Chili and Garlic Kebab, Syrian Fishcakes, Semolina and Butter pudding, and the queen of the mezze table, Red Pepper and Walnut Spread. Divided into 15 chapters, traditional cooking and preservation methods go hand-in-hand with todays desire for healthy and natural meals. Wonderful full-color photography of the food, people, and markets of Aleppo make this a stunning cookbook, a great gift for food lovers, and a fitting tribute to a beautiful city and the suffering its people have endured.
